

Paddy West

trad.

arr. C. Maden

Tenor

G C G D G

1. As I was a - walk - ing down Lon - don Road, I
 2. Now af - ter we had a feed, me boys, the
 3. Now Paddy, he pipes all hands on deck, their
 4. Now as we was bound for the southward, boys, for
 5. "There's just one thing to do, me boys, be-

Concertina

T

G C G C G

came to Paddy West's house. He gave me a feed of A-mer-i-i-can hash, and he wind be - gan to blow. He sent me up to the at - tic, the sta - tions for to man. His wife, she stood in the door - way, with a Fris - co, we was bound, Pad - dy, he calls for a length of rope, and he fore you sail a - way; That's step a - round the ta - ble where the Conc.

T

Em Am G

called it Liv - er - pool souse. He says there's a ship that's a - main - roy - al for to stow; But when I got up to the buck - et in her hand. Pad - dy, he cries out, "Now lays it on the ground; We all stepped ov - er and bul - lock's horns do lay; And if they as was you

Conc.

12

T

C G Em Am

8 want - ing hands, and on her you'll quick - ly sign; The at - tic, no main - roy - al could I find, So I let her rip!" and she flung the wat - er our way, Saying, back a - gain, till Pad - dy says, "That's fine; If they ev - er at sea, you can say, "Ten times 'round the horn!" And b'

Conc.

15

T

G D G C

8 mate's a bas - tard, the boat - swain's worse, but she will suit you turned a - round to the win - dow and I furled the win - dow
 "Clew up your fore - top - gallant - sails, boys, she's tak - ing in the ask was you ev - er at sea, me boys, you can say you've crossed the Je - sus, but you're an old sail - or since the day that you was Conc.

18

T

G C G Em Am

8 fine. Ch. Take off your dun - ga - ree jack - ets and give your - selves a blind.
 spray!"
 line!"
 born!" Ch. Put on your dun - ga - ree jack - et and walk up look - ing your Conc.

22

Am G D G

T 8 rest, And think on them cold— north - west - ers that we best, And tell them that you're an old sail - or lad that's Conc.

25

G C G C G

T
8 had at Pad - dy West's.
come from Pad - dy West.

Conc.