1. Fare - well and a - dieu to you, Span - ish la - dies,
2. Oh, I've been a sea - cook and I've bin a clip - per - man;
3. I went to a dance one night in Tom - baz.
4. We hove our ship to with the wind from sou' - west, boys,
5. Now let ev - 'ry man toss off his full bum - per,

L.

Fare - well and a - dieu to ye la - dies of Spain,
I can dance, I can sing, I can walk the jib - boom.
There were plen - ty of girls there as fine as you wish.
We hove our ship to, clear sound - ings to take,
And let ev - 'ry man drink off his full glass,

L.

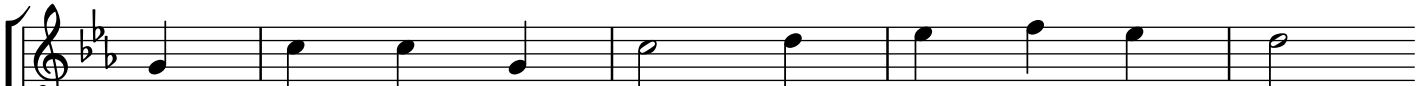

For we've re - ceived or - ders to sail for New Eng - land,
I can han - dle a jig - ger; I cuts a fine fig - ure
There was one pret - ty fair maid a - chew - ing to - bac - co
It was for - ty - five fa - thoms with a light san - dy bot - tom;
And let us be jol - ly and drown mel - an - cho - ly,

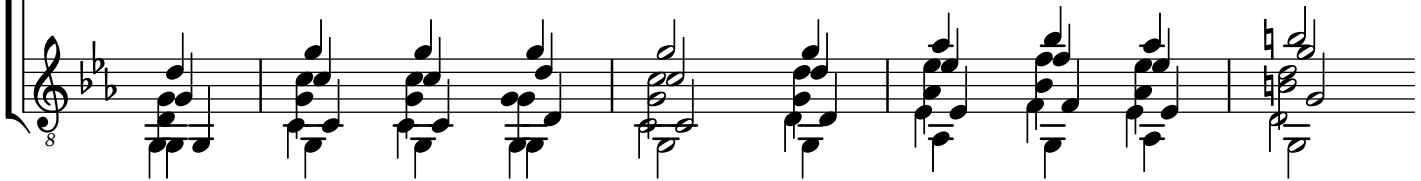

L.

But we hope in a short while to see you a - gain.
When - ev - er I gets in a boat stand - ing room.
Just like a young kit - ten a - chew - ing fresh fish.
We squared our main yard and up chan - nel did make.
And give a good health to each true - heart - ed lass.

L.
Ch.

Ch. We'll rant and we'll roar like true Yan - kee wha - ler - men,

L.  We'll rant and we'll roar on deck and be - low,

Ch.

L.  Un - til we sight Gay Head off old Mar - tha's Vine - yard,

Ch.

L.  Then straight up the chan-nel to New Bed-ford we'll go.
