The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#) and a common time signature (C). It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a common time signature. The melody is written in a simple, rhythmic style. The lyrics are written below the notes. The second staff continues the melody. The third staff continues the melody. The fourth staff concludes the piece with a double bar line and repeat dots.

To Ports-mouth, to Ports-mouth, it is a gal-lant town;
And there we will have a quart of wine with nut-meg brown, diddle down.
The gal - lant ship the Mer - maid, The Li - on hang-ing stout,
Did make us to spend there Our six - teen pence all out.
